

I do not think New Jersey's Do Not Call should be weakened. Life has never been so peaceful around the house, especially at dinner time.